Double Duty - Deployed Dads

When it comes to parenting, deployed dads face extra challenges.

This new CD, Double Duty: Staying Connected with Your Kids When

You're a Deployed Dad can help you meet them.

With advice from service-member dads across the branches and fatherhood expert and ex-Marine Armin Brott.

- How your child might react during each phase of your deployment
- How to make your departure easier on your family
- Ways to reach out to your child while you're deployed
- What your spouse can do to make your absence easier on your child
- What to expect when you return

Also included in the CD are how to handle specific circumstances such as becoming a father while you're deployed, staying in touch with your child when you're divorced or single, how to keep up with your child's education, and what to do if you may be feeling combat stress.
